

II. : Are You Ready to LEAD?

Through this course you will learn and develop critical skills to the success of your college future. While discussing important topics we will also be incorporating leadership skills and leadership development into the course. A combination of the Leadership Education and Development (LEAD) program and critical skills for college success will guide this process. (Samuel Goodge, Assistant Dean of Students)