

HSEM 201 : Sophomore Honors Seminar

Through challenging readings, presentations, exercises, demonstrations, writing, and experiential projects, students approach a topic of their choosing that explores the nature and functioning of formal and/or informal institutions in contemporary society). An inter-divisional team of faculty will provide instruction. The course satisfies requirements for WI and LI.

Credits 4.0