

PHIL 355 : Philosophy of Religion

The major aspects of religion are examined from a philosophical perspective. Topics studied are the religious experience, the meaning and significance of faith, belief and criteria, knowledge, proof, evidence, and certainty, the concept of deity, and the impact of religion on human life. (This course may be taken for credit as

RELS 355

.)

Credits 3.0