

WLAC 151 : English as a Second Language II

This course emphasizes listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills needed by international students to function satisfactorily in an American college setting. Intended for any student whose native language is not English and who has already taken

WLAC 150

Credits 3.0