

WLAC 484 : Methods of Teaching English as a World Language: Selected Methodological Issues

A discussion of selected issues regarding methods and materials necessary for teaching English as a second language and instruction and practice in planning lessons and extracurricular activities. (This course may be taken for credit as

EDUC 484

or

ENGL 484

. This course is only offered in conjunction with

WLAC 480

.)

Credits 1.0

Prerequisites

EDUC 242; a passing score on PRAXIS I Core Academic Skills for Educators; admission to the teacher education program.