

INTD 477 : Senior Seminar in Interdisciplinary Education and Psychology

This course is an introduction to professional opportunities in education and psychology and related fields and an exploration of value and ethical consideration. Continued guidance on senior project and senior comprehensive examinations also is provided during this course.

Credits 1.0

Prerequisites

Declared Interdisciplinary Education and Psychology major; junior standing or the permission of the instructor.