

CPSC 230 : Project Management

This course is designed to prepare a student in completing a complex project by using the constraints needed for a successful project. Topics included planning, scheduling, score management, quality control, budget, and risk management of a project during its life cycle. The student experiences as a project manager to complete a project with the necessary tools and skills during the course.

Credits 3.0