

ECON 222 : Research Methods in Economics

Research Methods in Economics introduces elementary research methods in economics. The course includes the use of microcomputers in economics and business. Emphasis is on using spreadsheets to prepare quantitative research projects in economics. The course also covers writing quantitative reports in economics. (This course may be taken for credit as

BUSI 222

).

Credits 3.0

Prerequisite or Corequisite

MATH 282 or 384.

Prerequisites

ECON 201 and MATH 281 or 383 or PSYC 205.