

ECON 280 : Managerial Economics

Managerial Economics is a study of profit-maximizing managerial decision-making with emphasis on the external environment of the firm. The course introduces students to quantitative techniques of decision-making.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisite Courses

ECON 201