

SOWO 320 : Social Welfare Policies and Services

This course is an examination of the social, historical, political, and economic context of social welfare policies and programs. Students gain experience in analysis of specific policy issues and their implications for professional social work practice.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisite Courses

SOWO 120