

THEA 254 : Costume Design and Construction

This course is a study of the history and basic elements of costume design and provides practical experience in designing costumes for performances. Fifteen hours of laboratory are required.

Credits 3.0