

ACCT 203 : Managerial Accounting

Managerial Accounting introduces students to the organizational role of accounting information, the techniques available to provide that information, and the benefits and limits of the information provided by the various techniques in response to the manager's needs.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisite Courses

ACCT 202