

ACCT 361 : Financial Auditing I

Financial Auditing introduces students to auditing principles and procedures, in both internal and external environments, as they are used to determine the fairness of an organization's assertions. Students use audit cases and computer assignments to attain an understanding of these topics.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisite Courses

ACCT 313