

BUSI 222 : Research Methods in Business

This course introduces elementary research methods in business and economics. The course includes the use of microcomputers in business and economics. Emphasis is on using spreadsheets to prepare quantitative research projects in business and economics. The course also covers writing quantitative reports in business and economics. (This course may be taken for credit as ECON 222).

Credits 3.0

Prerequisite or Corequisite

MATH 282 or 384.

Prerequisites

ECON 201 and MATH 281 or 383 or PSYC 205.