

BUSI 482 : Ethics in Business

This course exposes students to the social and economic responsibilities of business to society by examining the critical role of ethics in business decision making and its application to key strategic business decisions.

Credits 3.0